POSITION DESCRIPTION

POSITION: Instrumental Music Itinerant (Low Brass) and Ensemble Director
Reports to: Head of Music Programs

Key Purpose

Mentone Girls' Grammar has a proud tradition of excellence in music, attracting and retaining high-performing musicians across a wide range of instruments. Most importantly, students of all ages and abilities are deeply engaged in music and take great pride in performing on behalf of the School.

The Instrumental Music Itinerant, reporting to the Head of Music Programs, supports the co-curricular Music Program by fostering students' interest, enjoyment and appreciation of music. The role develops students' musical understanding through the teaching of practical instrumental skills, music theory, and the exploration of music within historical and cultural contexts.

The Itinerant has responsibility for developing students' individual performance skills and providing opportunities for authentic performance outcomes. This includes delivering individual instrumental lessons, providing constructive feedback and assessment, accompanying ensembles and choirs, and supporting performances at assemblies, concerts and School events. The role may also involve preparing students for AMEB examinations. Staff are expected to teach a range of genres and musical styles, from beginner to advanced levels, including musicianship classes.

In the capacity of Ensemble Director, the role also involves leading one or more student ensembles. This includes strategic planning in consultation with the Head of Music Programs to develop ensemble technique, musicianship and performance practices, as well as preparing students for festivals, competitions, and School and external performance opportunities.

The position is engaged on a casual basis and will suit an experienced music educator with a strong commitment to excellence, collaboration and student engagement in music education.

Responsibilities and Duties

This position description is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all duties, knowledge, or abilities associated with this position, but is intended to accurately reflect the principle elements of the role. The School may require you to carry out addition tasks by management, when necessary. This allows flexibility to respond to changing priorities.

Key Responsibilities

- Deliver high-quality instrumental and/or vocal lessons (individual or small group) during school terms.
- Teach in the area of your specific instrument, using well-prepared, engaging lessons and appropriate resources.
- Create a positive, inclusive and student-centred learning environment that supports diverse learning needs.
- Employ a range of teaching strategies to cater for different learning styles, abilities and stages of development.
